

GOVERN for IMPACT YOUNG PROFESSIONALS CONFERENCE LEARNING SCHOLARSHIP FUND APPLICATION FORM

The GOVERN Young Professionals Conference Learning Scholarship Fund is designed to support young professionals interested in effective boardroom governance either in the corporate or for-impact sectors. It will be administered by GOVERN for IMPACT and is designed to encourage participation in the GOVERN for IMPACT Annual Learning and Connecting Conference by alleviating some of the costs associated with attending the annual conference. Attending our annual conference is a chance to learn about best governance practices from established world leading experts in governance and to share insights and experiences with other current and aspiring governance professionals.

Completion of the following application is required for all those interested in being considered as a recipient of the GOVERN Young Professionals Conference Learning Scholarship Fund. All applicants must be between the ages of 20-35, as at December 31st of the year before.

GOVERN for IMPACT thanks all applicants for their interest; however, only those who meet criteria demonstrating the greatest need will be granted a scholarship. Applicants will be considered based on a variety of factors, including (but not limited to): financial need, distance required to travel in order to attend the conference, level of governance related interest and volunteer and professional involvement in governance.

Applications are due by April 15th the year of the conference. Successful applicants will be notified of their award on or before May 1st the year of the conference. They will be reimbursed for the conference registration fee for young professionals and other conference related expenses up to $500 USD. Scholarship recipients will be required to write a blog post for the GOVERN for IMPACT newsletter and social media following the conference, by August 30th the same year as the conference to cover key learnings from the conference, motivation for attending and the experience of the conference learning environment.

Please answer all of the following questions as completely as possible. All applications must be received by midnight (Eastern Time) on April 15th. Please email your completed application to admin@governforimpact.org.
